The passes are in and out access and are valid from Tuesday, June 12 to Sunday, June 17. Dock passes are available for $100 and Lot passes are $75. There will be a limited number of these passes and sponsors will have priority. The passes are a key card system and will have in and out privileges.

These cards must be returned to GAMA by the time you leave SUNDAY, June 17. If not returned you will be charged an additional $25 per card. These passes need to remain visible in the trucks window. Any truck without a pass will be removed at the owner's expense. For directions to the other Greater Columbus Convention Center parking and dock area please visit: <http://www.columbusconventions.com/directionsandmaps.php>.

Bare Booth Show

2018 Origins will be a bare booth show with concrete halls. This means that the exhibitor booth will NOT have tables, chairs, carpet or electricity as part of your exhibit space. You may bring your own materials, or rent them from Fern Expositions and Event Services. Forced freight is at 9 p.m. on Sunday, June 17. Anyone's shipping company that has not arrived for their freight pick up by then will have their freight handled by Fern and is responsible for all costs concerned.

Booth Placement

Booth placement is determined annually. First, sponsors get placed followed by the payment schedule (see Origins payment schedule above). Within the Origins payment schedule priority points will determine the order. Priority points will be issued for participation in the numerous Origins programs, booth size purchased, previous Origins booth purchases, program advertisement and event sponsorships. Priority points are sent out 60 days post show.

Unload & Load Out

The dockyard, docks and loading ramps will be controlled by the Greater Columbus Convention Center with help from the Origins staff and Fern staff. All exhibitor vehicles upon arrival at the dockyard entrance will be given a designated unloading time and a designated amount of time to unload. All vehicles will unload and drop off their product at their booth, then move their vehicle and return to set up their booth. Unloading will be monitored by security and the service contractor. Time allotments will be enforced.

NOTE - No dollies, hand trucks or carts will be provided by the service contractor.

All forklifts are the property of the service contractor or the Greater Columbus Convention Center and may NOT be used without their permission. Sponsors will also have priority access to unloading on the docks. Any vehicle found in the dockyard without permission will be removed at the owner's expense. Any exhibitor who exceeds his/her dock/ramp time will be sent to the back of the waiting list. Any exhibitor who is found to be loading/unloading in an unsafe manner will be sent to the back of the waiting list. A second violation will possibly result in the show management removing the exhibitor from the show with no refund.
